

UTSA College of Architecture, Construction and Planning

Scholarship Application Form

2017-18

Instructions for Architecture, Interior Design, and Urban & Regional Planning students

Architecture, Interior Design, and URP application packages must include the following components:

(1) 2017-18 CACP Scholarship Application Form

(2) Positions: Write a 300-500 word essay that describes your position on key issues in architecture, urban planning, and/or design. Applicant should be able to view himself/herself within established discourses in the discipline; identify architectural, urban, or design problems; and define a position based on this context.

(3) Faculty Recommendation Form (one) from a faculty member in the CACP

(4) Discipline-specific component:

- a) Architecture and Interior Design students (B.S. Arch, B.S. IDE, M.Arch 2 and M.Arch 3) are required to submit a Digital Portfolio Sample. This is defined as a sample of recent design work (i.e. studio project presentations) and cannot be more than two pages of content (8.5 x 11). Bear in mind that the work shown should be representative of your best work and demonstrate the depth of your skills. The digital portfolio sample should be emailed to nicole.chavez@utsa.edu along with the rest of the required components in the application package.
- b) M.S. Arch and M.S. URP students are required to submit a Writing Sample that illuminates an architectural and/or urban issue. Appropriate writing samples include clearly structured research papers, professional reports, book reviews, and analytical essays. The writing sample must be accompanied by a one paragraph (maximum) summary for it to be considered. It should be emailed to nicole.chavez@utsa.edu along with the rest of the required components in the application package.

M.S. Arch and M.S. URP students are not required to submit Digital Portfolio Samples in their application packages. B.S. Arch, B.S. IDE, M.Arch 2 and M.Arch 3 students are not required to submit Writing Samples in their application packages.

Most scholarships require students to be enrolled full-time. To be considered full-time, undergraduate students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours per semester and graduate students must be enrolled in 9 credit hours per semester.

General information for all CACP scholarship applicants:

Applicants will be considered for all available scholarships for which the student is eligible. Students do not apply for individual scholarships but, for informational purposes, the list of all available scholarships can be found in the scholarships section of the CACP website:

<http://cacp.utsa.edu/students/category/scholarships/>

The dollar amounts of each scholarship are subject to change. Scholarships are non-renewable; they must be applied for each academic year.

As a condition of receiving a scholarship, recipients will be required to attend the CACP Scholarship and Awards Banquet, which will take place in the fall 2017 semester. In addition, recipients will be required to submit "Thank you" letters, a signed Acceptance Form, a Biographical Information Form, and a Career and Goals Statement. The specific date and time of the banquet will be announced at a later date. Contact the Office of the Dean for more information.

Complete application packages are due by email to Nicole Chavez, Communications & Development Coordinator in the CACP Office of the Dean, before 5 p.m. on February 15, 2017. Incomplete applications or incomplete application packages will not be considered. Application packages must be submitted by email to nicole.chavez@utsa.edu .
